What do you think of a dollar quality of All-Wool Bedford Cord Dress Goods at 57c.

That are very similar in appearance to grades we have sold at $2.50 per yard—or a ninety-cent quality at 50 cents a yard? They will not last long at these prices—all colors. Colored Surah and China Silks, 25c per yard. 50 dozen Children's All-Wool Hose, sizes 6 to 8 1-2, price 17c a pair, worth nearly double.

Another lot of the new bordered Apron Gingham just opened. First lot entirely closed.

One case 27-inch Cocheco Crepon Prints, former price 10c, present price 6 1-4c per yard.

Licensed to Wed.

Two marriage licenses were issued by Clerk Hook yesterday, one to Michael B. Shefflin, aged twenty-five, of New York, and Jennie L. Jones, aged thirty-two, of Meadville, Pa., both now residents of Tyler county, W. Va., and one to James Tanahan, aged twenty-five, formerly of Cincinnati, but now residing in this city, and Minnie Archibold, aged twenty-five, of Charleston, but now a resident of Bellaire.

Donated to Charity.

The committee in charge of the refreshments for the visiting clubs on Tuesday night did a good act yesterday afternoon by sending thirty-four baskets of ham sandwiches, containing about 100 dozen, which were left over, to various charitable institutions in the city. The Children's home, St. John's home, St. Alphonsus home and the North Wheeling Orphan's home were the recipients.

To Row Up Salt River.

At Martin's Ferry Henry Elliott, Republican, and Albert Graham, Democrat, have made a novel bet. If Harrison is elected a john-boat will be hauled in the jollification parade, with Graham rowing the boat and three men in the wagon to see that he does this. If Cleveland is elected Elliott is to do this act. The boat will be called Ben Harrison or Grover Cleveland. Three persons are witnesses to this bet.

All for Harrison.

A pool room in this city, which has been advertising that it had a large sum of Cleveland money open to Harrison takers, was visited last night by a well known Republican, who wished to take advantage of a good thing, by putting up some money on the Republican candidate. Judge his surprise when he found that there was no Cleveland money there, but that what was there was to be wagered on Harrison.

Transfers recorded.

October 28, 1892, by Benjamin Exley, executor of the will of James Exley, to James McFadden, for $2,320, a tract of land located on the east side of Lind street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets.

October 7, 1892, by A. J. Clarke, trustee under the will of Hugh Nichols, to the city of Wheeling, for $2,550, for a tract of land lying along the Ohio river, north of the boundary of the city.

W. C. T. U. Matters.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held an interesting meeting in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. Dr. Harriet B. Jones presided, and considerable routine business was transacted. The union has made arrangements to give a lecture on physical culture by Miss Lydia Newcomb, of Michigan, who made an excellent impression during the past summer lecturing on the same subject at the Prohibition meeting held in Moundsville. The lecture will be illustrated by a Delsarte gymnastic club. It will take place at the G. A. R. hall, on Main street, next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

No one else furnished one penny in aid of the pretended colonization scheme except Senator C. J. Faulkner.

Call for the Election Outfits.

If all the ballots, ballot boxes and other items required by law to be called for by a commissioner of election from each precinct in the county have not been delivered on Saturday, the clerks of the circuit court and board of commissioners will immediately employ special messengers to deliver such as remain uncalled for.

To avoid the additional expense it is important that the commissioner of election who has been designated by his colleagues in writing to do so, should not fail to go after the ballots, etc., on Saturday at the latest. Ballots, ballot boxes, etc., can only be delivered on the authority of all the commissioners of the precinct, or of two of them, if one of the commissioners be absent from the city.

In Squire Arkle's Court.

The case of August Gessler, who runs a saloon on Market street, charged with throwing Addison Caves out of his place last Saturday, without just provocation, was taken under advisement until this evening at 7 o'clock, when a decision will be rendered. The five cases against Melissa McGlumphy, for renting houses for immoral purposes, were tried and taken under consideration until Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Col. W. W. Arnett and L. S. Jordan appeared for the defendant. The case against Grace Martin, charged with keeping a house of ill fame, was also taken under consideration until Saturday at the same hour, and the case against her for selling liquor without a license was dismissed.

FALSE STATEMENTS.

Secretary Berisford, of the Miners' Union, Called to Order.

In yesterday's Register W. S. Berisford, secretary of the local miners' union, published a card defending Adlai Stevenson from the facts as to his opposition to unions among his men, recently printed in the INTELLIGENCER. A reporter saw Jerry Mead, who was referred to in that card, and asked him about it.

Mr. Mead first objected to Secretary Berisford's use of his official position in the union for a political purpose. This, he said, he had no right to do under the rules of the union.

As to John McBride, a Democrat, ex-office holder and present office seeker, Mr. Mead well remarked that his word would not outweigh those of Donnelly or Scafe, who make the charges so damaging to Stevenson and even McBride never denied the facts in the INTELLIGENCER's damaging expose.

Mr. Mead is quoted as saying that miners in Illinois would not make affidavit to the statements. This is a specimen of Democratic fairness. Mr. Mead did say miners there would not make affidavit to the charges, although they said they were true. They were afraid to be quoted as swearing to the truth lest the labor union water, Adlai Stevenson, would have them discharged.

As to the statement in Berisford's card that these stories about Stevenson's record were published long ago, Mr. Mead pointed out that charges printed when he was not a candidate, and when there was no warm campaign on, would be naturally more worthy of belief than if they were brought out during the campaign for partisan purposes.

All around Mr. Berisford seems to have the worst end of the discussion. He doubtless knows that the expose of Stevenson's war on labor unions is true.

HARDWARE JOBBERS MEET.

A Pleasant Sort of an Association Gathers in Wheeling for the First Time.

Wheeling was honored Tuesday by the presence of a number of gentlemen in the jobbing hardware trade, the occasion being the regular monthly meeting of the Hardware Jobbers' Association of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Wheeling. This association has heretofore met in Pittsburgh, this being the first meeting in Wheeling. It was organized as much for the social benefits as for the business advantages, and is not in any way a combination to raise prices.

The meeting took place in the afternoon at the residence of Mr. W. P. Heiskell, at Echo Point, and was preceded by a pleasant luncheon party.

Those present were George T. McIntosh, of the McIntosh-Huntington Company, Cleveland, O.; Geo. W. Avery, of the William Bingham Company; W. C. Reitz, of the Bindley Hardware Company; Thomas A. Park, of Logan, Gregg & Co.; J. C. Lindsay, of J. C. Lindsay & Co.; B. C. Bakewell, of Wharton, Bakewell & Co.; William Cruickshank, of Greer & Loring; M. L. Ott, of Ott Bros. & Co.; D. J. Davis and W. P. Heiskell.

In Olden Times

people overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

The Escort Club go to Pittsburgh via the R. & O. R. R.

Go with the Escort club to Pittsburgh next Saturday, November 5, via the Baltimore & Ohio. Special train will leave at 3 p. m. Returning, leave Pittsburgh after the demonstration.

Two cars will be reserved exclusively for ladies. Round trip $1.35 tickets will be sold for all trains on Saturday, and will be good returning on all trains Sunday and Monday.

By taking the B. & O. you will have three chances to return home on Sunday, via any other route you will have but one.

THE HUB—ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

Great Goodness!

$15

We don't have one-half as much to say about our FIFTEEN DOLLAR SUITS as the facts will bear out. We'd rather understate than brag; rather leave something for your appreciation to feed upon. But how sentiment has changed within a year. Within a month men we've known for years, who we never had any hope would quit their tailors, are making their first trial of Readymade Clothes. Such men are particular. Not a bit too much so to suit us. It's the particular man who stands as ready to recognize merit as he does to condemn the shortcomings. He isn't won by price or looks. He

PEERS INTO THE DARK CORNERS,

Almost counts the stitches in his careful, cautious scrutiny. We like such men. It takes an extraordinary amount of goodness to satisfy them; the common run of Readymade Clothes don't suit them, but ours do.

OURS AT FIFTEEN DO,

Even if he has been paying $25 and $30 to tailors. We've great advantage over all competition, we buy only the best Tailor-made Clothing. They're not the kind nor patterns that are gotten up for the general run of clothiers. They're better. The kind the tailors buy in dribbles. The Imported Homespun, Cheviots, Cassimeres, Worsted. We've got the courage to buy novelties, that's why you see such a variety, such striking fashionable effects on our tables. They win their way to young men. THEY'RE FIFTEEN DOLLARS. That strikes the young man in a tender spot, too. Among the great stock of Suits in this grade it isn't possible not to be suited and fitted.

Sacks and Three and Four Button Cutaways,

$15 INSTEAD OF $20 AS ELSEWHERE.

The great crowds that throng our large establishment teach the plain and pointed truth—that no other house does, ever did or ever will sell such sterling qualities at such low prices as we quote. Our methods have won for us the confidence of the people.

MATCHLESS QUALITIES, IMMENSE VARIETY

And moderate prices are the steps up which we have climbed to success.
